Legislation for Pullout Doomed

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation to pull all U.S. troops out of Vietnam by 1972 appears doomed in a long-awaited Senate vote Tuesday. But win or lose, backers proclaim strategic dividends.
The so-called "Amendment to End the War" looks to fall several votes short in a roll call.
But doves say they'll show enough strength to reflect the sharp divisions throughout the nation over the war, and view the precedent-making chance to make their formal stand a major moral victory.

Whatever the outcome, they add, the Nixon administration must regard a significant show for the amendment as a profound portent that Congress will insist upon a fuller role in shaping war and peace.

It is noted by most observers, however, that whatever the enthusiasm the amendment may stir in the Senate, it likely would be overwhelmed in the more hawkish House.

"The vote on this amendment forces each senator to face squarely his own responsibility for either continuing or ending the involvement of American forces in the Indochina conflict," said Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., Sunday in an article written for The Associated Press.

Assistant Republican Leader Robert P. Griffin said passage would disrupt the Vietnamization program, undercut President Nixon's efforts to end the war and could prolong rather than shorten the conflict.

"The adoption of such an amendment would trumpet loud and clear to the Asian Communists that they need not negotiate seriously, that they could attain by default what they could not win on the battlefield," Griffin said, also in an article written for The AP.

"If the Senate should approve this resolution, which it won't, it would be a signal to our friends and foes alike that we, as a nation, are unwilling to measure up to the responsibilities we have assumed," Griffin said.

McGovern, however, said adoption of the measure would restore a lost constitutional balance between the White House and Congress in the conduct of foreign affairs.

In South Vietnam, he agreed, adoption of the amendment would probably lead to a coalition government.

The amendment calls for reducing U.S. troop strength to 280,000 by the end of next April and for barring the use of funds after that date for any purpose other than winding down combat and withdrawing all U.S. military forces by the end of the year.

The President would be given one 60-day period in which he could suspend withdrawal and

Agnew Stature
High as Foreign Spokesman

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's second Asian trip has demonstrated ambiguities inherent in the Nixon Far East doctrine while strengthening Agnew's stature as a foreign policy spokesman on the eve of the congressional campaign.

In Korea and Formosa, the vice president showed that, where conditions permit, administration policy stands quite close to the view of the Senate doves—Agnew's favorite political targets—that U.S. overseas commitments must be reduced.

But in the key areas of Vietnam and Cambodia Agnew's week-long, five-nation trip served to re-emphasize the U.S. Southeast Asian commitment.

Agnew made clear in talking with newsmen he will give the President an optimistic report later this week on the working of the Nixon Doctrine, the policy announced on Guam a year ago which combines reduction of American forces and increased Asian self-help with a reaffirmation of U.S. treaty commitments.

What if the North Vietnamese launch a renewed, all-out assault, in either Cambodia or Vietnam itself, once U.S. troops are reduced to purely a backup and logistic force?

On this front, Agnew showed considerable optimism. He told reporters on the way to Hawaii that more than half the enemy forces in Cambodia "have been eliminated" and said the slow-down of fighting in Vietnam indicates their inability to mount a major drive.

Yet, he emphasized that the United States will do everything it can to prevent a Communist takeover of Cambodia, viewing this as a direct threat to the security of U.S. troops in Vietnam and, perhaps more importantly, to the Nixon administration's troop withdrawal plans.

Coming as it did just before Agnew takes to the political stump as the chief administration campaigner to overthrow Democratic control of Congress, the trip had its inevitable political overtones.

Although Agnew started by denying there was any connection, he ended up by telling the Thais he would make efforts by antiwar senators to curb U.S. actions in Southeast Asia a major campaign target.

But in both Korea and Formosa, Agnew's account of his talks indicated a reluctance to accept those nations' fears of imminent Communist attack that should have delighted the Senate doves. So should his assertions that the administration is emphasizing domestic priorities and a worsening budgetary bind.

Welfare Is Discussed at Rotary Meet

State Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock was the guest speaker at the Hope Rotary Club luncheon meeting last Friday in the Town and Country, and he told the group "What the Welfare Program is Doing To You and For You." He discussed the services offered by his department and the increasing demands being placed by a lengthening number of recipients.

"Some of the requests are justifiable," he said, "while others are simply the result of an organized group of trouble-makers." Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Nursing Homes, and Food Stamps were programs of the Welfare Department which the speaker explained to his listeners.

Rotarian Benny Coleman arranged the program and introduced the speaker and other guests associated with the subject discussed: Haskell Jones, state welfare board; Mrs. James Voss and Mrs. J.O. Luck, county welfare board; Mrs. Alma Drew, local welfare office. President C.R. "Dick" Moore also welcomed two visiting Rotarians from Nashville, Tom Callan and Deward Sharp, and two other guests, Mrs. Haskell Jones and Bob Webb.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Officers arrested two Craighead County men Sunday night in separate narcotics raids near Jonesboro.

Authorities identified the two as Ronnie L. Grissom, 21, and Elmer H. Bradley, 22, both of near Jonesboro.

Officers seized a quantity of what they said was marijuana during a raid at Grissom's home. A quantity of marijuana seed was also confiscated, authorities said.

Bradley was arrested on a city street. Officers said they found in his possession a quantity of marijuana.

Deputy Prosecutor Olan Parker Jr. said charges of possession of marijuana would be filed against the two today.

Officers said Bradley returned about a week ago from a tour of duty in Vietnam with the U.S. Army.

Court Agrees to Rule on Busing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to rule on the busing of school children to achieve integration in the South.

In a brief order the court said it would hear argument Oct. 12 on school cases from Charlotte-Mecklenburg County, N.C., Mobile, Ala., and Clarke County, Ga.

At the same time the court will review a North Carolina law that forbids "involuntary" busing of children.

In all, six cases were granted review. Together they present what the court hopes are all the major remaining school desegregation questions.

These include the "neighborhood school concept" and "racial balance," as well as busing and the use of state funds to pay for student transportation.

patrolmen were shot and one was critically wounded in an incident in the same area, but Police Commissioner Frank Rizzo said he did not think the two shooting incidents were connected.

Rizzo blamed what he called a band of organized revolutionaries for the Saturday shootings. Two men were arrested and four others are being sought.

"These men set out to—as they say—kill pigs," he said.

Rizzo said that highway patrolmen Thomas J. Gibbons, 25, and Frank Nolan, 28, were shot Sunday night as they approached a car with two men after chasing and curbing the vehicle. They shot back and wounded one of the men who was apprehended.

Gibbons was reported in critical condition and Nolan as satisfactory.

Four policemen in Riverside, Calif., 65 miles southeast of Los Angeles, were shot from ambush Sunday night during a search of a Mexican-American neighborhood for persons suspected of throwing firebombs earlier. None was reported seriously injured.

Police said they did not know what precipitated the throwing of firebombs and rocks in a city park. Four persons were arrested but none was charged in the shootings, police said.

Trouble also erupted Sunday night in the Wilmington section of Los Angeles.

Police said about 500 Mexican-Americans touched off several fires in a 12-block area, threw rocks and hurled bottles. Some arrests were made.

Saturday night, one person died, more than 60 were injured and 185 jailed. Property damage estimates ranged up to $1 million with 178 businesses vandalized or looted.

Killed was Ruben Salazar, 42, a Mexican-American newsman covering the parade as news director of a Spanish-language television station and columnist for the Los Angeles Times. He was hit by a police tear gas projectile.

"The Mill-boy of the Slashes" was a popular nickname for Henry Clay.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Miss Twila Phanae Hunt and James Harvey Pilkinton, Jr. were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony at eight o'clock Saturday evening, August 29, in the First United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Hunt, and the groom is the son of Judge and Mrs. James H. Pilkinton. The Reverend W.R. Burks, uncle of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before an altar of Southern Smilax and white cathedral candles flanked by two baskets of white gladiolus and white stock. An arch of greenery was used flanked by two spiral candelabra with white cathedral candles entwined with greenery. Pews were marked with two branch candelabra, white satin, greenery, and burning cathedral candles lighted by David Jones of Hope and Clay Price of Dumas.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. B.C. Hyatt, organist, presented a program of pre-nuptial music. She accompanied the soloist, Miss Gayle Williams, who sang "Whither Thou Goest", "One Hand One Heart", and "The

Lord's Prayer

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of bridal white silk organza which featured a bodice of exquisite Venise lace and a high stand up Victorian neckline. The lovely lace fashioned the top of the full sheer puff sleeves and the cuff. The skirt was fully gathered at the sides and the back with a large self back bow under which the flowing train was attached. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a headress of Venise lace outlined with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, fleur-d'Amour, baby's breath, and English Ivy.

Miss Penny Burke of Hope was maid of honor. Mrs. Kenneth Freeman of Tampa, Florida, cousin of the bride, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cathy Feild of Hope, Mrs. Pat Osam of Little Rock, and Miss Vicki Russell of Dallas, cousin of the bride.

The attendants wore floor length gowns of cherry pink organza over silk, designed with a jewel neckline with the waistline defined by white Venise lace. The set in sleeves were banded by the lace and ballooned to form a sheer extension with wide self cuffs. The skirt was gathered to form a free flowing effect. In their hair they wore wide self bows with a short illusion veil matching their gowns and carried cascade bouquets of rose pink asters and flowing English Ivy.

Miss Kahlynn McDowell, cousin of the bride, of Crane, Texas was flower girl. She carried a basket of rose petals with a nosegay of miniature pink asters and ivy.

Mr. Pilkinton was his son's best man. Groomsman who also served as ushers were Thomas Carter of New Orleans, brother-in-law of the groom, Dickie Lunsford of Hughes, Clay Price of Dumas, and Al White of Osceola.

Mrs. Hunt chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of aqua lace over crepe with matching accessories. Mrs. Pilkinton, mother of the groom, wore a pink lace dress with matching accessories. Each had orchid corsages.

A reception followed at Hope County Club with Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, parents of the bride serving as hosts. Mrs. E.R. Brown invited the guests into the reception room. Miss Jeanne Pruden of Hope was in charge of the guest book, which was placed on a table covered with a bridal satin cloth overlaid with double tiered tulle banded in white and white stock. The bride placed her bouquet on a silver tray beside the memory candle.

The bride's table was covered with a bridal satin cloth overlaid with double tiered tulle banded in white satin. Around the skirt were garlands of plumosa caught up at various intervals with nosegays of miniature rose pink asters. The table was centered with a five branch silver epergne holding an arrangement of pink senation roses, pink asters, and pink stock with burning cathedral candles. Other appointments were in silver.

Mrs. Thomas Carter, sister of the groom, of New Orleans and Mrs. B.W. McDowell, cousin of the bride, of Crane, Texas served the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with satin bells. Mrs. Junior Hargis and Mrs. David Griffin, both of Hope, presided at the punch bowl.

At the groom's table Miss Bitay Morris of Hope and Miss Linda Owen of Pine Bluff served German chocolate cake and Miss Jane Case of England presided at the silver coffee service. The table was overlaid with an imported white linen cloth of hand drawn lace work and centered with five branch candelabra.

Floor baskets of white gladiolus and white stock were at advantageous points in the reception room.

Others assisting in displaying hospitality were Mrs. Talbot Feild, Mrs. Lloyd Turner, Mrs. A.M. McDowell, Miss Darla James, Miss Debbie Watson, Miss Mary Ellen Holder, Miss Nancy Martindale, Miss Sandra Turner, Miss Cosy Burke, Miss Toni Burke, Miss Sally Booth all of Hope, Mrs. Bill Fuller of Little Rock, and Miss Marti Margrave of Camden.

Teresa McDowell and Mary Collins, cousins of the bride, and Jennifer Royal and Laurie Ann Burks, cousins of the groom, distributed rice bags.

For a short wedding trip the bride chose a beige knit suit with brown accessories and pinned her mother's corsage at her shoulder.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Pilkinton will be at home in Little Rock where he is employed by the Union National Bank and she will complete her studies at Hendrix College.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Louie Souter and Roger of Springhill, La.; Dr. and Mrs. B.W. McDowell of Crane, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner of Shreveport; Mrs. Norah Russell of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. John Goodwin of Texarkana; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hunt of Texarkana; and Kenneth Freeman of Tampa, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Pilkinton of North Little Rock; Mrs. O.B. Hardman of Arkadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Caudle of Atlanta, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Hargis of Morrilton; Mr. and Mrs. Brown Hardman and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cox of Arkadelphia; Mrs. M.L. Allen of Smackover; Dr. and Mrs. Jack Rock of Little Rock; and Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Burks of Pine Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buchanan of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Dedmon of Camden; Bill Fuller of Little Rock; Mrs. Al White of Osceola; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cofer of Searcy; Frank Hawkins of Brinkley; Pat Osam of Little Rock; and John Allmon of Dumas.

Coming, Going

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Russell flew to Grand Forks, N.D., on August 13 to visit their son, A.L. Kenneth G. Russell, Jr., and Mrs. Russell. They also visited in Minnesota and Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, before returning home August 21 by way of Little Rock, where they visited Dr. and Mrs. Don Browning and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Coffman and their families.

Don, Joan and Dan Browning and Terri Coffman, all of Little Rock, have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. K.G. Russell. They were joined August 26-27 by Mrs. Pearl Taylor, Bodcaw, Mrs. Don Browning and Mrs. Truman Coffman, Little Rock. All have now returned home.

Duplicate Bridge winners at Northridge Country Club in Texarkana last Wednesday included Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Broach, who took second place.

Mrs. G.B. Morris, Webb Laseter, Mary Anita and Webb, III went to Shreveport Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stubblefield.

Mr. and Mrs. W.F. James and Becky Garrett have returned from a 10-day trip in which they visited Maj. and Mrs. Kirk James and family in Las Vegas, Nev., where Maj. James is stationed at Nellis AFB.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tarpley came home last week from a trip to the Ozarks and visits in Corning with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Drilling and in Memphis with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Miller.

Dale Middlebrooks went to Shreveport Sunday to see Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Middlebrooks.

the millions." Faubus said that Rockefeller was the "greatest do-nothing ever to hold the title of governor." He referred to Bumpers as a "country clubber."

The former governor charged that the results of the primary were planned to cut Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell out of a runoff spot. "He (Purcell) was bush whacked, dry-gulched, ambushed by the sneaky, underhanded, unethical tactics of the Rockefeller forces in meddling in our Democratic primary on behalf of Mr. Bumpers," Faubus said. He said that Purcell "earned as much or more than anyone the right to a runoff spot."

As for those who supported Bumpers, Faubus said most would return to the Republican party because their main objective was to defeat Faubus.

Faubus cited Bumper's endorsement by the Arkansas Gazette as proof of support by Rockefeller forces.

"To illustrate the point, just remember that the Arkansas Gazette has for the past three general elections endorsed Mr. Rockefeller and fought for him with unrestrained fury. Even to the point of being very flexible in their concept of truth and editorializing on every one of their news pages," Faubus said.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

WHAT IS "LIBERATED" IN WOMAN IS "LIBERTINE" IN MAN

Dear Helen:

Maybe some of those lippy lips can answer me this:

If men are so "liberated" and women so repressed, how come the gals can wear men's clothing—cords bought off the boys' rack, shirts belonging to husband, brother or boyfriend, pullover from the men's department, anything and everything except their undershorts—and this is "stylish." But if a man dares put on a dress, it's fetish time! Men and women alike shun him and the psychiatrists collect.

Also, a dame can get boozed up and do a strip in a night club bringing only laughs from the customers. But let a man try it and right away he's a sex maniac. He ends up in the pokey or the nut hatch.

One of those females can proposition a guy at a bar and who cares, but let a man approach a woman with the same thing in mind, and she screams for a cop—even though she hasn't got anything to lose.

If these little ladies got all the equality they wanted, how long would it take them to squawk when men became airline stewards, stenographers, and nurses in great number? And think of jockey or athletic clubs getting picketed because they didn't provide ladies' rooms! If they took over traditional men's jobs, they'd soon demand special treatment.

When the women consent to fight our wars for us, start picking up the checks, and don't feel affronted when they are sued for alimony, I'll vote for equality—but first I hope my brothers will join me in howling for men's liberation too.

UNFAIR

Dear Unfair:

Nope, 'tain't fair. What is

"liberation" for the gals is sometimes termed "libertinism" in men. You guys might organize a resistance group. —H.

Dear Helen:

"Scared to Death" speaking. I want to tell you that name doesn't apply any more. Thank you for answering my letter, and not cracking wise as others might have done.

I am the man who said he was raised in a family of females and still liked to put on women's clothes. I feared this would ruin my coming marriage, though I am definitely not homosexual.

Soon after writing to you I felt a sense of relief, so just before our scheduled marriage, I told my fiancée the truth. Instead of being shocked, she said, "I've been wondering when you'd tell me." Then she explained that my sisters had mentioned this quirk of mine. As I was stammering, she said she understood, and asked me to "model" my ladies' wear, including a dress.

We have been married for a month, and I often relax at home at night in what might be called "womanish attire," which is an extremely comfortable toga-like robe. Now that I no longer have to feel ashamed, I find dressing this way is less important. It probably was a fetish, but my wife is making me see that I'm all male, and the man of the family even if sometimes neither of us wears the pants. Somehow, her sympathetic teasing and her ability to understand makes me

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — One of the unexpected side results of Julie Sommars' status as a star of a television series has been an opportunity to meet statesmen and-or politicians.

Miss Sommars, given a choice, undoubtedly would have preferred opportunities to meet producers of motion pictures and-or Broadway plays. She has been industriously learning the business of acting in Hollywood, school and summer stock.

Julie plays one-half of the title of "The Governor and J.J.," a CBS situation comedy about the widower head of an unidentified state that resembles California and his post-college-age daughter. In its initial season, the series showed considerable humor, warmth and family feeling. Despite disappointing ratings, it won the network's nod for a second year.

Somebody decided to invite some real governors to appear on the show, on the theory that no matter how minimal their acting ability, the chief executives would (1) attract loyal constituents to the show and (2) provide the show's press agents with some promotable angles.

"This season our governor—Dan Dailey—is going to run for re-election," Julie reported, refusing to reveal whether he wins or loses.

After all the drama school study, stock and some motion picture experience, Julie enjoys the discipline of acting in the series. The performers rehearse each episode as if it were a play for four days and it is filmed on the fifth before a studio audience.

"It is possible under those conditions to give a sustained performance," she said. "The other way you work in bits and pieces."

In her free time, the pretty blonde native of Nebraska likes to swim and ride horseback.

"I'd really like it better out here if there were more interesting eligible men around," she admitted. "The important words in that sentence were 'interesting' and 'eligible.'"

That is, surprisingly, a common complaint of young, attractive and successful women stars.

Soupy Sales is an ingratiating comedian, the fall guy. He is the little man imposed upon by fate and by people. He is the doctor who steps on his patient's oxygen tube; the night watchman who falls in love with a computer with a soft voice; the owner attacked by his own watch dog. Sales was all those in his CBS special Sunday night. He didn't catch a pie in the face, but Sales fans probably enjoyed the physical humor.

The hour was a slight thing, however, without much besides Sales to recommend it. A lot of the gags, if not stale, were predictable.

Communion Wine May Have Been Strong

STAMPS, Ark. (AP) — Members of the First United Methodist Church here looked with amazement and maybe wondered if the Communion wine was a little strong when the Rev. Robert Johnson asked during the Sunday night service if anyone saw it snow Sunday afternoon.

Johnson explained that following a heavy rainfall, snow fell for about 10 minutes. The temperature at the time was in the mid 90s.

Johnson said he was "positive" that what he saw was snow. He expressed hope that he could find someone else who saw the white flakes falling so the members of his church would believe the story.

Returns Home After a Three Day Ordeal

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Junior Gearhardt, 8, returned home to Hoisington, Kan., Sunday after a three-day ordeal which led him to Bentonville after being abducted in Kansas Friday.

Authorities said Gearhardt was abducted by a man in a pickup truck while he and a companion were at the Cheyenne Bottoms Wildlife Refuge in Kansas.

His companion, Richard Farmer, 13, told officers that the man forced him at gunpoint into a campground restroom, hit him on the head with the gun, then forced Gearhardt into the truck.

Benton County authorities said Gearhardt had apparently been let out of the truck by his

Wells Tosses His Support to Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bill Wells of Hermitage says he will begin calling his friends Monday to solicit their support for former Gov. Orval Faubus in his bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Wells gave his endorsement to Faubus Saturday during a Little Rock news conference.

Wells, who placed fifth in the race for the nomination, said he gave his support to Faubus because Faubus' philosophies more nearly paralleled his own than those of Dale Bumpers.

Bumpers will apparently oppose Faubus Sept. 8 for the nomination.

Wells said Bumpers is "more to the left and more of a liberal, and therefore, I believe that the ideas that I have espoused would come nearer to becoming reality under Mr. Faubus."

Faubus welcomed Wells to his camp.

The former governor said Wells "can be a very able worker with those of us who are seeking to free the state and its people from the domination of the eastern, big money, bogus liberal establishment."

He was apparently referring to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who is seeking a third term in office.

Wells told newsmen that he would have a desk in Faubus' headquarters, but would receive no pay for his work. He said that Faubus had not "promised" him anything if elected, however Wells said he might "consider" a position within Faubus' administration.

abductor shortly before noon Saturday.

Sheriff's deputies refused to let newsmen talk with the child, saying that he appeared "shaken" by the experience.

A deputy said he was well and in good condition, but he was "hungry as he can be." Gearhardt spent the night in the home of a deputy.

To The Voters of Hempstead County:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to the voters of Hempstead County for the votes and support they gave me in the Democratic Primary Election on August 25th.

I can assure you that I will do my best to perform the duties of the office of County Judge to the best of my ability.

If I can ever be of any help to you, please let me know and I will endeavor to serve you.

Thank you,

Wins Dow Jones With $5 Putter

By DAVE GOLDBERG
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLINTON, N.J. (AP) — It's been a long time between victories for Bobby Nichols. It's been a long time between putters too.

Using the same $5 putter he used to take the 1964 PGA tournament, Nichols dropped in a 10-footer on the 18th hole Sunday for a birdie for the $60,000 first prize in golf's richest tournament, the Dow Jones Open.

That gave him a 69 for the day and a 276 for the tournament, one stroke better than Labron Harris, who only minutes before had sunk a birdie putt from almost the same spot to the Nichols.

"I just hadn't been putting well," said the 34-year-old Nichols, whose last individual victory on the tour came in 1966. "I figured I might as well try the old putter. I've taken it apart and put it together a dozen times and it looks like a dog chewed on it. But I guess it still works."

It worked on that final hole at the Upper Montclair Country Club, a 600-yard, par-five. Nichols was only five yards short of the green and pitched up to about 10 feet away.

"When I hit it, I thought I left it short," he said. "I just wanted to hit it hard enough, but it felt like I had chewing gum on the end of the putter."

The ball hung on the lip of the cup, then toppled in, as Nichols threw his club in the air and staggered sideways. Harris, sitting alongside in the scorer's tent, didn't look. He said he knew all along it would go in.

"There wasn't any point in my watching, there wasn't anything I could do, said a glum Harris, who has yet to win a tournament in his six years on the tour.

But the 28-year-old Oklahoma State graduate, who holds a master's degree in mathematical statistics, couldn't be too unhappy about the numbers. He took home a check for $34,200, more than the winner makes in most four tournaments.

For Nichols, who now plays in only about two-thirds of the four tournaments, the satisfaction was as much in the victory itself as in the money.

"To tell the truth," he said, "I know it was $60,000 that I won. But it was the satisfaction of winning a golf tournament that was really the ultimate. When you go a couple or three years and you don't win, you start thinking a little."

"I've been in position to win about four or five times," he added. "But either the other guy has won it or I've lost it. Sometimes you scare yourself out of winning."

Harris and Nichols had started the day tied at 209, two strokes ahead of youngsters John Miller and Larry Hinson but with at least nine other players, including pre-tournament favorite Jack Nicklaus within reach of the title.

As it turned out, they got their strongest competition from Dan Sikes, who just made the cut Friday with an even par 144. Sikes, who had a 67 Saturday fired a four-under-par 68 Sunday and at one point was even at 10-under for the tournament with Harris and Nichols. But he took a bogey five at the sixteenth hole and said afterwards that if he knew he were tied, he would have played safer.

Sikes finished third with a 279, followed by Hinson at 280; Charles Coody at 281, and Miller, Bruce Devlin, Orville Moody and Homero Blancas at 282.

Hog Seniors Want Win Over Texas

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The seniors on the 1970 Arkansas football team are 19-3 and still not satisfied.

They've never beaten Texas and that's the measuring stick of success in Razorback football.

The seniors will get their final shot at the Longhorns Dec. 5 in what ABC-TV hopes will be a replay of the Big Shootout of 1969.

Before the season finale in Austin, the Razorbacks will meet 10 opponents anxious to knock them from their lofty perch.

Coach Frank Broyles knew the seniors of 1970 were something special when they scrambled to a 9-1 season in 1968 and upset Georgia 16-2 in the Sugar Bowl.

Among the 1970 seniors are eight players who have been in the starting lineup for two years: quarterback Bill Montgomery, tailback Bill Burnett, split end Chuck Dicus, defensive ends Bruce James and Rick Kersey, defensive tackle Dick Bumpas, defensive halfback Jerry Moore and linebacker Mike Boschetti.

Montgomery, Burnett and Dicus, along with flanker John Rees and tight end Pat Morris, give the Razorbacks the nucleus for another explosive offense.

The Razorbacks rolled up more than 33 points a game last year and Broyles admits the offense could be as effective if the young offensive linemen produce.

Graduation claimed All-American center Rodney Brand, All-Southwest guard Jerry Dossey and tackle Bob Stankovich, a two-year starter.

The exploits of Montgomery, Burnett and Dicus are well known in a state that eats, sleeps and breathes Razorback football.

Montgomery has passed for 3,451 yards in 21 games and accounted for 3,778 yards in total offense.

"He is real smart," says Arkansas assistant coach Mervin Johnson of Montgomery. "And he's tough as a boiled owl. The tougher it gets, the better he is."

Montgomery appears extremely cool while searching for his receivers, unbothered by a heavy pass rush.

Burnett has scored 37 touchdowns in two years and his 1,759 yards rushing leave him only 29 shy of the Arkansas rushing record set in 1955.

"He runs in all directions at the same time," Broyles says.

Raymond Berry, a former all-pro receiver with the Baltimore Colts, took over the Arkansas receivers this spring and was quickly impressed with Dicus, who has broken 35-year-old school receiving records.

"He's a blue chipper in every respect," Berry said. "He's got speed. He's got quick feet. He

Boston 21-11, 4-1 Over White Sox

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

When the Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox get together it's more like the Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox, with the pitchers coming out black and blue.

The American League rivals wound up their bizarre season series Sunday with the Red Sox sweeping a doubleheader 21-11 and 4-1. Imagine scoring 11 runs and losing by 10. Well, why not? After all, back on May 31 the Red Sox scored 13 ... and lost by nine.

Things were relatively peaceful until Aug. 19, when the White Sox poured 11 runs across in the ninth inning for a 13-5 victory. The Pale Hose provided a taste of what was coming Saturday with an eight-run inning and a 13-9 triumph.

The Red Sox bounced back in Sunday's opener with an eight-run frame of their own and wrapped it up with six more in the ninth as they pounded out 22 hits. Mike Nagy finally put a stop to the pop in the nightcap with a five-hitter.

Elsewhere in the AL, the New York Yankees whipped Minnesota 5-2, California outsluged Cleveland 10-9, Detroit edged Oakland 6-5, Milwaukee topped Baltimore 5-2 and Kansas City nipped Washington 4-3.

In the National League, San Francisco took two from Pittsburgh 7-3 and 2-1, Houston trounced the New York Mets 9-5, the Chicago Cubs beat San Diego 3-0, St. Louis shaded Los Angeles 2-1, Philadelphia downed Atlanta 4-2 and Montreal upset Cincinnati 5-1.

Manager Eddie Kasko of Boston termed the battle of the Sox "almost ridiculous" and said he had no explanation for the scoring outbursts. "It seems that when one club gets rolling, the other can't stop them," he said.

"You have two clubs that don't have the pitching," was the way Don Guttridge of the White Sox put it. "Right down the line the Red Sox have power. But their pitching is not that good that our club can't hit them. Good pitching stops our club. Imagine scoring 29 runs in four games and only winning one," he sighed.

George Scott, Reggie Smith and Mike Andrews each had four hits and four RBIs in the opening game and Carl Yastrzemski added a three-run homer. Andrews and Rico Petrolcelli homered in the nightcap.

Roy White hit the first grand slam of his career and the Yankees' first since early last season to help rookie Steve Kline turn back the Twins and trim their lead over California in the AL West to three games.

Jack Gibbs also homered for the Yanks, who were celebrating the return of Mickey Mantle as a coach.

The Angels swatted five home runs and the Indians four—six of them would not have been homers before the fences in Cleveland were moved in this year—but it took Alex Johnson's two-run single in the sixth and Sandy Alomar's dash home on a wild pitch in the eighth to insure the triumph.

Johnson, Alomar, Jay Johnstone, Bill Voss and Ken Mullen homered for the Angels and Chuck Hinton, Graig Nettles, Vada Pinson and Ray Fosse for the Indians.

Catcher Bill Freehan, playing his last game before undergoing a back operation, touched off a two-run Detroit rally in the eighth as the Tigers came from behind to beat Oakland, ending a five-game losing streak. The A's had gone ahead in the top of the inning on Reggie Jackson's two-run homer, one of four Oakland pinch hits, tying the league record for pinch hits in a single game.

Freehan, the AL's All-Star catcher who has been in pain can execute any offensive maneuver. I give him a new one and he runs it right the first time, better than I ever did, better than anyone I ever saw."

James, Kersey, Bumpas and Roger Harnish gave Arkansas a quick, knowledgeable front four. Arkansas led the nation in defense against scoring in 1969, but Broyles is concerned about the secondary where Moore is the only known quantity.

The seniors would like nothing better than to match perfect records with Texas in December. If they get past the season opener they may do just that.

P. Gethkin Wins Can-Am Auto Race

By BLOYS BRITT

AP Auto Racing Writer

Close observers of the Canadian-American road racing series have said for months that the only way the orange McLaren-Chevrolets can lose a trace is to break completely or be disqualified.

And that's the reason the late Bruce McLaren, who built the team into the biggest winner in motorsports, always ran twin cars in all of the Can-Am events.

At Elkhart Lake, Wis., Sunday, No. 1 driver Denis Hulme crossed the finish line first in the sixth race of the season. Right behind him was Peter Gethkin of Britain in the No. 2 McLaren.

Two hours after the finish, Sports Car Club of America officials announced that Hulme had been disqualified. They said his car had stalled and was given a push by course workers to re-start the engine.

You aren't allowed to receive such help in Can-Am racing—or any other type, for that matter. Hulme was credited with 37 laps and wound up 15th.

Ark. Jolts San Antonio Chances

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Arkansas jolted San Antonio's pennant chances and kept alive its own flag hopes in the eastern division of the Texas League by stopping the Missions, 4-1, to salvage the finale of a four-game series Sunday night.

The Travelers got solo homers from Ed Gagle in the second and Skip Jutze in the fifth to back lefty Al Hrabosky, who threw 126 pitches before being lifted after seven innings with a 3-1 lead. A wild pickoff throw helped produce another Arkansas tally in the fourth, which scored on a double play.

Arkansas added an insurance run in the ninth on a single by Wayne Dees, walk to Bill Stein, single by pinch-hitter Quique Rivera to load the bases and a run-scoring single by Jutze.

San Antonio scored its only run in the second on walks to Jim Brunette and Dave Rosello and an RBI line-drive single by losing pitcher Q. V. Lowe.

U.S. Wins Tennis' Davis Cup

By GEORGE STRODE

Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — The United States has won tennis' Davis Cup again, even though the series doesn't wind up until today.

Ferdinand Henkel, whose West German squad lost the first three matches—giving the United States an insurmountable 3-0 lead—thinks the structure of the Davis Cup playoffs needs a change.

"Four Davis Cup rounds in six weeks—that's too much for the players," the German's non-playing captain said Sunday after Americans Stan Smith and Bob Lutz whipped Wilhelm Bungert and Christian Kuhnke in 11-2 doubles, 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

"There should be at least three weeks break before the challenge round," Henkel said. "We had only 11 days. It's a war of nerves."

Ed Turville, rookie captain of the American team, didn't agree.

"Two weeks rest between rounds should be enough," the St. Petersburg, Fla., attorney said. "After all, the Germans had the advantage of playing in this type of competition. Our boys hadn't seen this pressure for nearly a year."

"I followed the boys at Wimbledon this year," Turville said, "and they weren't shaking like they were here when they took the court."

Meaningless singles matches were scheduled today. Arthur Ashe Jr., of Richmond, Va., faced Kuhnke and Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., took on Bungert.

The doubles' triumph pulled the United States into a tie with Australia with 22 Davis Cup victories, a record for the world competition. It was also the Americans' third decision in a row.

Lutz and Smith, who took the 1967-68 NCAA doubles crown as Southern Cal students, ran their Davis Cup record to 8-0, including a 3-0 in challenge rounds.

A. Manning Makes Miss. Best Bet

By ED SHEARER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Elisha Archie Manning III is reason enough to tab Mississippi as Dixie's best football team on the eve of the 1970 season.

Johnny Vaught, beginning his 24th season as head coach of the Rebels, stunned southern writers two years ago when he said the lanky redhead could be the best athlete at Ole Miss during his coaching career.

Manning, one of the leading candidates for the Heisman Trophy, has lived up to Vaught's rave notices, rewriting a record book that previously had been dotted with such names as Charley Conerly, John Dettley, Jake Gibbs, Glynn Griffing and Eagle Day.

The Rebels are favored to hand Vaught his seventh Southeastern Conference championship. Elsewhere in Dixie, Paul Dietzel's South Carolina Gamecocks are the class of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Richmond is the team to beat in the Southern Conference and Georgia Tech, rebounding after three straight 4-6 campaigns, and Florida State head the list of independents.

It will be a year of outstanding quarterbacks in the South, with Manning heading the list because he is as dangerous running with the ball as he is throwing.

The SEC's cast of prime passers includes Scott Hunter of Alabama, John Reeves of Florida, Pat Sullivan of Auburn, Bobby Scott of Tennessee and Watson Brown of Vanderbilt. Untested but regarded as one is Louisiana State sophomore Bert Jones, son of former Cleveland Browns star Dub Jones.

Leo Hart of Duke is the king of ACC passers while Tommy Suggs ignites a prolific offense at South Carolina. Richmond's Charlie Richards, All-Southern Conference quarterback in 1969, returns after placing fifth nationally in total offense.

Sophomore Eddie McAshan, a Negro, can run and throw and has leadership qualities that should give him the No. 1 quarterback spot at Georgia Tech.

Mississippi, which whipped Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day, returns its 11 offensive starters from 1969 but faces problems rebuilding a defense. However, as one expert noted, with Manning the defense may be needed only sparingly.

The SEC annually produces five or six bowl teams and this year should be no exception. Although Ole Miss is favored, as many as seven teams could win the title.

LSU thundered through a 9-1 campaign last year but was snubbed by the bowls. Charles McClendon's Tigers are ranked No. 2 in the conference, but could win it all by beating Ole Miss Dec. 5 providing they get by a pair of rugged road assignments at Auburn and Alabama.

Running back Tommy Casanova, an all-conference defensive player last year, is the major threat in the Tiger arsenal.

Defending champion Tennessee lost the heart of its defense, All-American linebacker Steve Kiner and his cohort, Jack Reynolds, but the Vols are set offensively. Bill Battle, at 28 perhaps the youngest major college coach in the nation, took over at Tennessee when Doug Dickey left to assume a similar post at his alma mater, Florida.

Florida rode the talents of sophomores Reeves, flanker Carlos Alvarez and running back Tommy Durrance to a 9-1 season, one of its best ever, and then the Gators trimmed Dickey's Vols in the Gator Bowl.

Paul "Bear" Bryant, unaccustomed to losing, combed and country for talent following a dismal eighth-place SEC finish last year and should be a title contender again. The offense ranks with the best and if Bryant is successful in rebuilding the defense, the Tide will be tough.

Auburn rolled to an 8-3 record a year ago, including a bowl defeat, and could be even better this year. Sullivan directs an awesome offense and Shug Jordan's defense was among the best last year.

Georgia, winner of two titles in four years, should be improved with a revamped offense if a quarterback blossoms early. The defense will again be tough, but probably not as strong as last year.

Vanderbilt, Kentucky and Mississippi State continue on the road of improvement, but none appears capable of escaping the second division.

LA's Success Depends on Its Defense

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Quarterback Roman Gabriel won honors in 1969 as the National Football League's most valuable player and could be better this season, yet the success of the Los Angeles Rams pivots on defense.

Stopping opponents proved the biggest factor during the first three seasons of Coach George Allen's tenure particularly in 1967-68, but they didn't do it as well a year ago.

Allen says he counts on his veteran defensive platoon but admits it left some things to be desired in 1969. Although both free safety Eddie Meador and linebacker Maxie Baughan, the man who called defensive signals, retired after last year, both changed their minds.

"Gabriel's best years are ahead of him," said the coach before this season began and after his quarterback completed 217 of his 399 passes for 2,549 yards and 24 touchdowns a year ago.

Los Angeles won the Coastal Division title but lost to the Minnesota Vikings 23-20 in their playoff game for the Western Conference title. Then they wallowed Dallas 31-0 in the Playoff Bowl.

Defensively along the front line, the Rams have such stalwarts as 270-pound Merlin Olsen, 250-pound "Deacon" Jones, 270-pound Coy Bacon and 255-pound Diron Talbert.

Add to that list 280-pound Rick Cash, who has looked much better this fall, and you have an impressive array.

Jack Pardee, Doug Woodlief, Jim Purnell, John Pergine, Myron Pottios and rookie Jack Reynolds provide linebacking strength.

A trade brought former UCLA star Kermit Alexander from the San Francisco 49ers in exchange for place kicker Bruce Gossett to bolster the defensive secondary which also numbers Alvin Haymond, a kick return ace, Clancy Williams, Ron Smith and Willie Daniel.

If the Rams are to improve offensively, they must get more mileage from running backs.

"Larry Smith will definitely be improved," said Allen of the Florida product who won his way into a starting job last year but has been hampered with injuries this fall.

Les Josephson, after starring in 1967, missed the entire 1968 season because of a torn Achilles tendon.

"Josephson will be better this year," said Allen.

Tommy Mason provides a spot runner and Willie Ellison has shown improvement although he also has had injury troubles so far this campaign. Jim Thomas, after seven years in Canada, signed with the Rams and might possibly be of help.

Pass receivers look solid at this point with Jack Snow, Wendell Tucker, Bill Truax, Bob Klein and Jim Seymour, the latter a former Notre Dame star who missed last season because of military service.

Allen, himself, feels he must produce a winner in his fifth year of coaching. He was fired after his third campaign despite a divisional title and then rehired when players stood solidly behind him. Still this is his final contract year and so far the Rams management hasn't proffered a new pact.

Wayne, N.J., in Little League Final

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Solid hitting propelled Wayne, N.J., into the Little League World Series final, but it was spectacular defense that made the New Jerseyites champions.

Winning pitcher Steve O'Neil was in trouble every inning except the last in Wayne's 2-0 shutout of Campbell, Calif., Saturday. He was bailed out each time by such plays as:

—A diving catch by Wayne rightfielder Mike Fantau with a runner on second in the fourth inning.

—Dave Shaver's catch of a line drive with the bases loaded in the second.

The 4-foot-10 inch 85-pound Shaver doubled in both runs for the winners in the second inning. O'Neil didn't come close to his

Aussies Sweep Titles in Tournoy

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — Australians swept the men's and women's titles of the inaugural $25,000 Marlboro Open Tennis Championship Sunday when Rod Laver blasted Bob Carmichael of France 6-4, 6-2, 6-2 and Kerry Melville edged Patti Hogan of La Jolla, Calif., 7-6, 6-4.

Laver received $4,000 for the victory. Carmichael got $2,000.

In doubles action Laver and Andres Gimeno of Spain topped Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Jim Osborne of Bountiful, Utah, 6-4, 6-3 in a semifinal match postponed from Saturday.

The Laver-Gimeno team won the first finals set 6-3 over Patricio Cornejo and Jaime Fillo, both of Chile, with the Chileans taking the second 7-6. The Chileans had a 2-0 lead in the final set when it was called off because of darkness. It was scheduled to be resumed at 11 a.m. Monday.

In women's doubles the team of Rosemary Casals of San Francisco and Virginia Wade of Great Britain defeated Gail Chanfreau and Francoise Durr, both of France, 6-3, 6-4.

no-hit performance against Valleyfield, Que., in Wayne's opening round came. On Saturday, he gave up six hits and two walks, while striking out six.

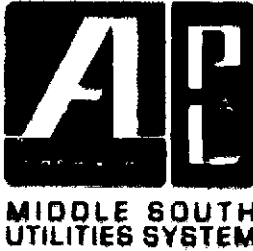

This thingamajig with the doohickey on it is an electric water heater.

Even back in 1912, it didn't need to be vented.

Back in 1912 this was your basic electric water heater. Today's version looks different, but it still fits almost anywhere in the house because there's no vent. Saving valuable space for storage or other uses. And today, heating water electrically is still the best way. But don't take our word for it. See your Reddy Plan Dealer or plumber. He can show you a complete and modern electric water heater line. Not hand you one.

Boycott of Redistrict Plan Urged

COLLEGE STATION, Ark. (AP)—About 100 persons attending a meeting here Sunday night were urged to participate in a boycott of public schools to protest redistricting the area. Under a plan approved by U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley, the upper three grades of College Station Elementary School, which is predominately Negro, would be moved to another school. A previous plan would have brought white children to College Station, but white parents protested.

The Pulaski County Schools were scheduled to open today, but organizers of the boycott urged parents to send their students to Freedom Schools. Supt. Leroy Gattin had warned that federal funds might be withheld from the district if the public schools are boycotted. Woodrow Keown of College

THE WELL CHILD

Pamphlet Will Help You Correct Child's Speech

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

If your child's speech is distorted or slow to develop, the cause may be physical (deafness, a deformity of the lips or palate) or functional (poor health in the first two years of life, inadequate teaching or imitation of poor speech). Frustration resulting from unrealistic standards set by the parents often leads to stuttering. The child of an overprotective parent who anticipates his every need may find it unnecessary to talk.

"Helping Your Child Speak Correctly," by John Bryant, is an informative new pamphlet that explains how speech develops, offers some ideas and games for helping children learn good speech patterns and discusses the roots of speech disorders and how they can be corrected. It is available for 25 cents from the Public Affairs Committee, a nonprofit educational organization located at 381 Park Ave., South, New York, N.Y. 10016.

Q—My 8-month-old daughter sucks her thumb constantly. Will this cause her teeth to come in crooked? How can I stop this habit?

A—The gentle insertion of the thumb, part way into the mouth, with mild sucking, is normal in infants up to 2 or 2½ years of age and does no harm. But insertion of the thumb almost to the wrist and vigorous sucking for long periods usually means that the baby is overly tired or feels neglected, frightened or frustrated. This may push the upper front teeth outward and the lower front teeth inward.

If the habit is stopped before the permanent teeth come in, the teeth will gradually return to normal position. In any case, it is important to find and treat the cause of the thumbsucking. Meanwhile, try to get your daughter to use a pacifier instead of her thumb.

Q—Our son, 9, still sucks his thumb. What do you advise?

A—Any child who persists in this habit after he is three years old may not only distort his teeth but also get infections around his thumb-nail. He needs the combined attention of an orthodontist and a child psychologist.

Q—I am giving my daughter, 6, Ganturin for a kidney infection. Could this cause her to break out around the vulva?

A—Yes. Your doctor may want to switch to one of the other urinary antiseptics. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Jim: "What do you know about the two-handed bridge game called 'Bridgette'?"

Oswald: "It is easily the best two-handed bridge game I have ever seen. The bridgette pack consists of a regular pack plus three extra cards called colons. Each player, after a certain amount of drawing and discarding, winds up with a regular hand that may include one, two or even all three colons. The prime function of a colon is that when your opponent leads any suit you may play a colon. He wins the trick but must shift to another suit."

Candidates Draw for Positions

Hempstead County Democratic Central committee met Friday, August 28 in Hope City Hall courtroom to certify the vote in last Tuesday's election, draw candidates names for position on the September 8 ballot, select judges and clerks and discuss party business. Here is the order in which the candidates names will appear on the Democrat ballot Sept. 8:

For Governor
Orval E. Faubus
Dale Bumpers
For Lieutenant Governor
Dr. Bob Riley
James H. "Jim" Harrell
For Sheriff & Collector
Henry Sinyard
Jimmie Griffin
For Constable
(DeRoan Township)
Ford Ward
Hobart D. Shirley

DeRoan Township includes all boxes in Hope, Country Boxes 5 and 6, Rocky Mound and Shover Springs.

The Committee was informed by the Chairman of the law forbidding anyone who voted in the Republican Primary of August 25 to vote in the Democrat General Primary of Sept. 8. Arkansas Statutes 3-1105 states that, "No person who voted in the Republican Preferential Primary on Aug. 25 may vote in the Democrat Primary on Sept. 8, 1970. Such an act is not only a violation of Democrat Party rules but is a FELONY punishable by 1 to 5 years in the penitentiary and or $5,000.00 fine."

The names of the 422 persons who voted in the Republican Primary have been secured and will be sent to each precinct for the Sept. 8 election. Judges and clerks will be instructed to challenge anyone whose name is on the list, inform them of the law, and forbid them to vote. Signs printed in red ink will be posted outside and inside each voting precinct quoting the law to voters.

All voting precincts will be the same as in the August 25 election and judges and clerks will be contacted by Democrat committeemen. No extra counting crew will be used at Box 1-A and Box 1-D as this will be a short

Bank Robberies Have Increased Threefold Since 1960, FBI Says

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — There was "Dashing Dan," the soft-spoken New Yorker who dressed neatly and used a note. Then there were the four men in Cincinnati who left four women dead in their wake.

Between them, and thousands of others who followed their line of work in the past decade, they have robbed more banks and stolen more money than John Dillinger could have aspired to in his heyday.

Since 1960, bank robberies have increased nearly threefold, the FBI says. Despite a drop of slightly more than one per cent in 1969, says FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, bank robberies are becoming more than ever "a major problem facing law enforcement."

"Banking institutions are sustaining mounting monetary losses, of course, but the more alarming problem involves the numerous acts of violence inflicted upon the bank employees, bank customers and law enforcement officers during the commission of these crimes," Hoover told a congressional committee recently.

In one of the most brutal cases recorded by the FBI in recent years, three armed robbers forced one woman employee and three women customers into the vault of a savings and loan office in Cincinnati, Ohio, last year, shot them to death and

Miss Connelly and Mrs. Fowler will fly to Williamsburg, Virginia, where they will be guests at Colonial Williamsburg for two days. Governor Winthrop Rockefeller, who is Chairman of the Board of Colonial Williamsburg, made the arrangements for their visit. One of their hostesses at Williamsburg will be Mrs. Francis Cherry, wife of the

Faubus Links His Foe to Rockefeller

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus Sunday launched an attack on Dale Bumpers, Faubus' opponent in the Sept. 8 Democratic gubernatorial runoff election.

In a televised speech, Faubus charged that Bumpers had supported G. Winthrop Rockefeller, a Republican in past gubernatorial elections. Faubus also said that Bumpers was backed by Rockefeller forces.

"According to persons who called us," Faubus said, "Rockefeller forces have been paying for advertising in behalf of Mr. Bumpers in several areas across the state."

He said that the Democrats for Rockefeller and Republican Independent Voters League, "paid for advertising, paid for headquarters, made phone calls, circulated leaflets for Mr. Bumpers."

Faubus said that Bumpers and Rockefeller would appeal to the same type of voter.

"Therefore, you may be sure in November, if the choice is between two flaming liberal look alikes, that vote will go to the flaming liberal with $500 million before it will go to the other flaming liberal without "Dashing Dan," so named for his fast footwork, is accused of robbing 19 New York banks in a three-month period earlier this year, getting away with $34,000 without so much as pulling a gun.

Dan would hand the teller a note, warning that he had a gun and demanding large denomination bills. If the teller hesitated, he would say "excuse me" and walk away. If the teller complied, he said "thank you" and left with the loot.

Bank robberies now number about 2,000 per year and losses run in the millions of dollars, according to FBI statistics. The most likely victims are branch banks or savings and loan offices in cities of 25,000 population or more, although rural banks are still being knocked off regularly, the FBI says.

Despite the dip in 1969, bank robbery has increased more in the past 10 years than any other type of robbery recorded by the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports. Bank robbery has risen by 296 per cent since 1960, compared with a jump of 186 per cent in street robberies such as mugging and armed holdup. All violent crimes, including robbery, rose 130 per cent during the decade.

Many Areas Are Still Fighting U.S. Order Forcing Integration

ATLANTA (AP) — Thousands of schools across the South begin classes this week under orders decreeing the end of dual school systems. But attempts to combat federally forced racial integration continue.

The latest effort came Sunday with the formation of the National Coalition of Concerned Citizens, a group of state organizations claiming more than a million members in 27 states.

Representatives of the coalition from North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Florida, Georgia, Arkansas and Texas gathered in Atlanta and disclosed plans to mount a campaign against busing, zoning and pairing of schools.

A part of the campaign, spokesmen said, will be the establishment of a "Legal Offense Fund," to compete in the courts with the Legal Defense Fund of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

"We are all through reacting to what other people do. We are going on the offensive," said Ellis Rubin, a Miami Beach, Fla., attorney.

Dr. Mitchell Young of Texas said that although persons from only seven states attended the meeting, those present represented states other than their own.

A second meeting of the coalition is scheduled Sept. 12 at Norfolk, Va.

The group announced it is seeking an immediate meeting with President Nixon, whose administration says this fall will bring the most meaningful school desegregation in the South since the 1954 U.S. Supreme Court decision which outlawed assignment of pupils by race.

Spokesmen said the coalition will attempt to impress its views upon the President and seek his assistance in having the Supreme Court:

—Hand down in specific terms the definition of a unitary school system.

—Rule on the question of whether either the Constitution or existing statutory law requires a mathematical balance of the races in schools. Rubin said the organization is hopeful that the justice Department will raise those question in a scheduled Oct. 12 hearing before the high court on an appeal of a court-ordered plan for Charlotte, N.C. The plan requires the busing of 13,000 to 17,000 pupils.

Red Rocket Fire Drops Suddenly

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy rocket and mortar attacks dropped off about a third during the night from a four-month high the night before, but casualties so far reported were about an eighth of what they were Saturday night.

U.S. B52 bombers meanwhile made heavy raids for the third day on newly detected supply routes in Laos.

The U.S. Command repoy routes in Laos.

The U.S. Command reported 40 shelling attacks across South Vietnam from 8 a.m. Sunday to 8 a.m. Monday, and incomplete reports said one American and two South Vietnamese civilians were killed, and eight Americans and 13 South Vietnamese were wounded.

In the 24 hours before, 61 enemy rocket and mortar attacks were reported, the heaviest since May 1. And the barrages

Vietnam Peace Certain as Far as Involvement by U.S., Nixon Says

By FRANCES LEWINE

Associated Press Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP)

President Nixon said today that "so far as the United States involvement is concerned."

He referred, in a taped television interview for today's CBS Morning News, to the program of withdrawing U.S. troops and replacing them with South Vietnamese.

The President also expressed the view that there is "some hope" for the Middle East situation now that a cease-fire has been called. He played down suggestions at this time for a U.S.-Soviet peace-keeping force in the area.

Nixon said he would predict nothing and expect nothing as Hanoi's chief negotiator Xuan Thuy returns to the Paris peace talks Thursday.

There are no new U.S. initiatives, Nixon said, but "we are in a very flexible negotiating position" and "now we shall see whether the other side is interested in one too."

The interview was filmed at the Western White House Saturday. See VIETNAM PEACE

Ten Officers Are Shot in Disorders

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ten policemen in three cities were shot over the weekend, five of them in Philadelphia, where one died. Outbreaks of urban violence also occurred in Los Angeles where one person was killed in Mexican-American rioting and in Washington, D.C. where two foreign missions were bombed.

The latest shooting in Philadelphia came after dawn today when police raiders exchanged gunfire with barricaded occupants of what police said were headquarters of black militants.

Police said Patrolman Frank Eckman was hit in the leg when he and others crashed through the door of a Black Panther community information center in the North Philadelphia area. Fourteen arrests were made.

Philadelphia police Sgt. Frank VonCollin, 43, was shot to death Saturday night while talking on the telephone in the guard house at Cobbs Creek Park. Earlier, park guard James Harrington, 39, was shot in the mouth while patrolling in an emergency wagon.

Sunday night, two highway patrolmen were shot in the back of the head while patrolling on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near Harrisburg.

Israel Said Ready to Quit Talks

TEL AVIV (AP) — Prime

Minister Golda Meir said today

Israel is engaged in a "strenuous dispute" with the United States over Israeli charges of Egyptian violations of the Middle East cease-fire along the Suez Canal.

"As initiator of the proposal, the United States promised that neither side would be allowed to improve its position through the cease-fire," she told a meeting of the Histadrut, Israel's labor federation.

"Only a few hours passed (after the shooting halt took effect Aug. 7) and already the Egyptians began violating the agreement, and these violations are still continuing," she said.

"Israel cannot concede on this point and agree to become weaker if fighting is renewed on the canal."

Israel claims Egypt is moving missiles into the so-called forbidden zone—a 30-mile-wide strip along both sides of the canal where, according to the cease-fire agreement, no military material may be moved up at least for the 90-day duration of the truce.

Mrs. Meir denied Israel accepted the cease-fire because its air force could not stand up to Soviet missiles in the canal zone.

This was a rebuff to Foreign Minister Abba Eban, who said Saturday that had Israel rejected the cease-fire, it would have lost its air superiority against Egypt.

In Jerusalem informants said the Israeli Cabinet appeared in a crisis, with doves and hawks in sharp dispute on whether to continue with the peace talks in New York in the light of the Israeli charges of Egyptian violations.

The Israeli delegate to the talks at U.N. headquarters is staying in Israel at least until the middle of the week, awaiting the outcome of the Cabinet debate.

The Jerusalem informants said some of the Cabinet ministers were seeking to close the gap of disagreement between the doves and Defense Minister Moshe Dayan over whether to continue the talks in the light of the Israeli charges against Egypt.

Yosef Tekoah, the Israeli ambassador to the United Nations, who flew to Jerusalem last week after a day of Arab-Israeli meetings with the U.N. Middle East special envoy, Gunnar V. Jarring, reported to the seven-hour Cabinet meeting in Jerusalem on Sunday. A spokesman said later Tekoah would remain in Israel for another Cabinet session Tuesday.

Dayan met twice with Mrs. Meir during the weekend, then was joined by the Israeli military chief of staff, Lt. Gen. Haim Bar-Lev in presenting to the Cabinet the military's position on the alleged violations.

They presumably were supported by Israel Galili, minister without portfolio in the Cabinet, who said Saturday that Egyptian violations of the truce could force Israel to walk out of the negotiations being conducted by Jarring with the U.N. ambassadors from Israel, Egypt and Jordan.

Scattered Showers for Arkansas

Scattered showers developed over the southern portion of Arkansas Sunday and pushed across the state.

The U.S. Weather Bureau says that these showers will remain within the state for the next few days. The majority of the showers will develop in the afternoon and evening hours, with warm and humid days.

Another front, now in Central Missouri will move into Arkansas giving more impetus for shower development in North Arkansas.

Highs will range mostly in the low 80s, with lows in the 70s.

'Most Happy Fella' Wins Cane Pace

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Most Happy Fella seems to have the Pacing Triple Crown at his mercy this year.

"Yes, I think he's got a good chance of making it," said Stanley Dancer, who drives the Meadow Skipper colt for his wife, Rachel. "But he's got to stay sound and healthy."

Dancer made his comment after reining Most Happy Fella to an impressive 1½ length victory over Shrek in the $102,700 Cane Pace before 32,181 at Yonkers Raceway Saturday night.

The Cane was the first leg of the Triple Crown. The second is the Little Brown Jug at Delaware, Ohio, on Sept. 24 and the final is the Messenger Stakes at Roosevelt Raceway on Nov. 7.

Columbia George, who went off the 3-5 favorite in the Cane because of his No. 1 post, held a length lead coming into the stretch. But he proved no match for Most Happy Fella, who came around him, and drew out for his impressive triumph in the stakes record time of 1:58 3-5 for the mile.

U.S. Team Ahead in Basketball

TURIN, Italy (AP) — Height and the referee's whistle have helped the U.S. basketball team advance in the final round at the sixth World University Games, while Israeli twice has been blocked by politics.

Seven-foot Jim McDaniels of Western Kentucky scored 24 points Sunday as the U.S. gained a hard-fought 90-80 victory over Cuba, which had five players whistled out with personal fouls.

The United States, favored to win the basketball gold, was to play Brazil today.

Israel's basketball squad failed to get on the court again Sunday when Algeria refused to play. Albania had refused to play Israel on Thursday.

An Arab spokesman said Arab countries were not going to compete against a country which was "in a state of war against us."

However, the Arab action was not expected to apply to track and field which opens Wednesday, with the United States expected to turn in a strong showing.

The Americans led after three days of competition with 19 gold medals, most of them collected in swimming. Russia had six golds.

Hopes Start Building for Fall Races

By ED SCHUYLER JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

It's time for owners and trainers of 2-year-olds to start building their hopes for the big fall juvenile stakes and the next year's 3-year-old classics. Mrs. John A. Morris has the right to hope as hard as anyone—because of her Proudest Roman.

The 66th running of the $130,950 Hopeful Stakes Saturday on closing day at Saratoga went to Proudest Roman, by 1½ lengths over Pieter Kissel's Pass Catcher. Buckland Farm's Cool Moon was third.

Pass Catcher's speedy stablemate, Executioner, impressive winner of his only other two starts, apparently didn't like the muddy track. He stopped badly near the three-eighths pole and finished seventh in a field of eight.

In scoring his fourth win in five starts, Proudest Roman carried John L. Rotz over the 6½ furlongs in 1:18 3-5 for a winning mutual payoff of $10.40 and first money of $85,117.

At Hawthorne Saturday, Kerry's Time scored by three-quarters of a length over Indian Emerald, with Chief Sun Dance third.

Ziba Blue, $41.60, got home by a neck over Goddess Special, with Stolen Base third, in the $23,182 division of the Pageant Handicap at Atlantic City after running the 1 1-16 miles on the turf in 1:44 2-5.

In the $23,912 section, Apple Princess, $20.00, was timed in 1:44 2-5 in beating Toter Back by a nose, with Sweet Miss another nose back.

The Del Mar Derby also was split into two divisions. War Hawk, $20.20, beat Mickey McGee and Freedom Kidd in the first division, while Mayhew, $9.40, scored over Sir Wiggle and Woodie Can in the second section. War Helm and Mayhew each were clocked in 1:49 1-5 for the 1¼ miles on the grass.

State Team Defeated in Regional Play

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Metairie, La., nipped Ft. Smith, Ark., 3-2 here Sunday night to advance to the finals of the American Legion South Central Regional baseball tournament.

Ft. Smith scored single runs in the second and third innings. Pitcher Ron Raible had held Metairie at bay, allowing only three hits until the seventh inning, but the Louisiana team broke open the game in the seventh by scoring three runs. Earlier Sunday, Metairie eliminated Jackson, Miss., from the tournament with a 5-4 victory sparked by third baseman Joe LaSalle's 360-foot home run.

Columbia George, who went off the 3-5 favorite in the Cane because of his No. 1 post, held a length lead coming into the stretch. But he proved no match for Most Happy Fella, who came around him, and drew out for his impressive triumph in the stakes record time of 1:58 3-5 for the mile.

Intrepid to Defend America Cup

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Intrepid, a sleek 12-meter yacht, and its crew have realized Bill Ficker's thrill of a lifetime—the right to defend the America's Cup.

"This is a great thrill to be selected ..." Intrepid's skipper said Sunday after being named to defend the Cup against Gretel II of Australia beginning Sept. 15.

The America's Cup Committee of the New York Yacht Club announced Intrepid's selection after she beat Valiant for the sixth straight time in the final trials. The margin of victory in Intrepid's ninth straight triumph and 22nd in 27 races since July was 1 minute, 51 seconds.

Intrepid will be the first to defend the cup twice in succession since Columbia in 1899 and 1901. Intrepid beat Dame Pattie of Australia 4-0 in 1967.

Ficker, of Newport Beach, Fla., was congratulated by Valiant's skipper, Bob McCullough of Riverside, Conn., and said:

"Bob offered to help us with his crew in anyway that he could, and I'll think we'll call on them because we can learn a lot from them."

Ficker also was congratulated by Baron Marcel Bich, skipper of France, the French representative, that was beaten by Gretel II in the challenge trials.

Earlier in the day, Bich declared he would never race in the United States again. He accused the International Race Committee of "dishonoring the skipper and the boat by letting the (Friday) race go on in conditions of visibility which did not allow for the contenders to normally find the marks."

day. Asked whether he thought chances for peace were better in the Middle East or Southeast Asia, Nixon declined to speculate.

Before the cease-fire, Nixon remarked, the Middle East situation "had no hope; since the cease-fire, it has some hope." He cautioned against being overly optimistic, saying differences and passions going back thousands of years "are not settled quickly."

"However, as far as we are concerned, we believe we have made some progress," he said. "Because, after all, there is a cease-fire. People aren't being killed now. And as long as that goes on, it looks better than it was."

Nixon was asked about a suggestion mentioned by high administration officials at a Western White House briefing for news executives last week of the possibility of a U.S.-Soviet military force under United Nations auspices to keep the Middle East peace.

"I would not comment on it at this time," the President said, adding:

"I do not believe that suggestions of that type, well intentioned as they are, are going to be particularly helpful at a time when the Jarring mission is going forward."

He referred to the Israeli-Arab talks being conducted at the United Nations by Ambassador Gunnar Jarring.

Nixon has scheduled a general review of the Middle East situation at the Western White House Tuesday with State and Defense departments, Central Intelligence and military chiefs represented.

Certification of Votes Is Expected

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Charles D. Matthews, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, says he expects all the counties to have their votes certified by the deadline today.

Matthews said the committee had certified 55 counties Saturday and he expected the remaining 20 counties to send their results to Little Rock by mail Sunday or Monday.

He said he would not release the results until the committee had certified the totals of all the counties.

Young Still Has Faith in Freedom Inc.

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Only reporters and out-of-towners ask Dr. Mitchell Young if Freedom Inc., is dead, its national president says.

He gives the same two-part answer to both.

"Freedom Inc. is not dead. And we will win."

There was widespread feeling Freedom Inc. was dead, especially since Young was beaten in a disputed school board race last April.

He admits his silence since losing the April 4 school election and filing a suit contesting that election may have led people to believe that Freedom Inc. was becoming inactive.

But, Young says his attorneys advised him to remain relatively silent.

Although Freedom Inc., started as an "antifederal-control-of-schools" organization, Young's zeal for combating federal programs has pushed the organization into the fight against all types of federal projects, such as Model Cities.

The stand against Model Cities is not an exercise in racism, he asserts. "This has nothing to do with races. There have been attempts in the past to label me as anti-Negro. I am not anti-Negro, but I am antiblack militant and antiwhite liberal."

He believes—as all members of Freedom Inc., vow they do—that (1) freedom of choice is the best method of student placement; (2) neighborhood schools should be allowed to exist; (3) school districts should be locally controlled; and (4) in order to prevent the United States from becoming a "socialistic police state" federal control of education must not be allowed.

The second largest problem facing Freedom Inc., right behind the federal government's grip on schools, is the lack of financial support, Young says.

"I am confident that if we had time and resources, we could outgrow the NAACP—which has 450,000 members and is a racist organization—if our people could devote more time to the organization," he said.

"Our national organization has done all it has done on a relatively small budget." The budget covered the cost of operating a national headquarters here for several months and paid for several Freedom Inc. trips to Washington D.C. and other cities.

There is a national board of directors of 20 men, Young says there are chapters in 27 different states.

Saturday night and early Sunday killed 55 South Vietnamese and wounded 140, most of them civilians.

Most of the targets Saturday night were district towns or government outposts. The aim was to damage the South Vietnamese government's pacification program and keep voters away from the senatorial election Sunday. But 4,388,000 persons, or 67.5 per cent of the 6.5 million registered voters, cast their ballots, the government reported.

In ground fighting, U.S. forces backed by helicopter gunships reported killing 40 enemy soldiers in four clashes Sunday south of Da Nang. No U.S. casualties were reported in these actions.

The U.S. Command announced that American troop strength in Vietnam dropped to 402,300 last week, a decrease of 1,400 from the previous week.

The authorized U.S. strength is to be pared to 384,000 by Oct. 15 in the fourth phase of President Nixon's withdrawal program.

About 25 of the Strategic Air Command's B52 bombers dropped about 750 tons of bombs on North Vietnamese supply depots and transshipment points along the Ho Chi Minh trail in southeast Laos.

For the past three days, about 70 percent of the B52 missions have been in Laos, "to make sure there is not any extremely large amount of war materials coming into South Vietnam," one source said.

Despite the intensified air strikes, the North Vietnamese are still able to push some arms and ammunition down the Ho Chi Minh trail for use in South Vietnam. With Thursday being the first anniversary of the death of President Ho, some allied commanders anticipate heavy enemy attacks this week.

In Cambodia, government forces retreated from the garrison town of Srang, 27 miles southwest of Phnom Penh, after repeated attacks by about 300 Viet Cong troops, a government military spokesman announced. He termed the retreat a "tactical withdrawal," ordered to escape the Viet Cong and to permit planes to bomb the area.

It was the second time in six weeks government forces have been driven out of Srang.

Bumpers Is Endorsed by McClerkin

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—House Speaker Hayes C. McClerkin of Arkansas, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, Sunday endorsed Dale Bumpers of Charleston for governor.

Bumpers, a lawyer, will face former Gov. Orval E. Faubus in the Sept. 8 Democratic primary runoff.

In making the endorsement, McClerkin said: "I believe that Dale Bumpers is the aggressive new leadership this state needs to move into a new decade."

McClerkin ran fourth in Tuesday's primary. He received just over 45,000 votes.

Accidents on State Roads Kill Six

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Six persons were killed in traffic accidents in Arkansas during the 54-hour weekend period that ended at midnight Sunday.

Two of the victims died Sunday in separate accidents. State Police said Ralph Hamilton, 21, of DeWitt was killed early Sunday morning when he lost control of his car and struck a bridge abutment on Arkansas 11 near DeWitt.

Linda Ann DuVall, 19, of near Russellville was killed Sunday when the car in which she was riding went out of control and hit a bridge abutment on Arkansas 105 near Atkins. State Police said the car was driven by Don Teadwell, 21, of near Dover.

David B. Dunlap, 19, of Coal Hill was killed Saturday in a two-car accident on U.S. 64 about one mile west of Altus.

Margaret Dean Donley, 28, of near Marianna was killed Saturday night when she walked into the path of a car on Arkansas 1 near Marianna. Police said she walked into traffic from behind a parked vehicle.

Richard H. Brown, 18, of Blytheville was killed Friday night when he apparently lost control of the car he was driving and ran off a Mississippi County road near Blytheville.

Also killed Friday night was

On Saturday, they will go to Atlantic City, where Miss Arkansas will participate in the Miss America pageant during the following week. Accommodations will be at the Traymore Hotel.

On Monday, September 14, they will fly to Washington, D.C. where they will tour the city, visit Congress and the White House, and be entertained by members of the Arkansas delegation. They will return to Little Rock on Tuesday evening, September 15, arriving at the airport at 8:03 p.m. on American's Flight 395.

Of course, if Miss Arkansas should be crowned Miss America, then her trip to Washington would have to be postponed.

Again, the committee members will pick up and deliver the ballot boxes and supplies to their respective precincts. These will be ready on Monday, Sept. 7, between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. in the County Clerk's office.

Riley Lashes Foe for Vote on Gambling

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Bob Riley criticized his apparent opponent for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor for voting for casino gambling.

Riley will oppose James H. Harrell in a Sept. 8 runoff election.

Both candidates appeared on separate portions of KTHV's "Face the State" program Sunday.

Riley said Harrell "supported casino gambling in 1967," as a member of the legislature.

Lena Williams, 15, of El Dorado. Police said she was riding in a car that ran off a county road in Union County near El Dorado.

on busing had nothing to do with race, that busing was a burden on both black and white students and parents and an unnecessary expense to the taxpayers," Faubus said. "I was told that the national and international leaders did not see it that way."

Bumpers told the COPE delegates, "The state of Arkansas is not poor in spirit, determination or desire. It is poor in leadership."

He said that Arkansas' problems cannot be solved overnight, but "I know the problems, and I think I know the solutions," he said.

Bumpers repeated statements that Arkansas needs tax reform. He says that the burden of taxes needs to be shifted to those who can afford to pay.

However, he said that an increase in sales tax would be the last place he would look for additional revenues if elected. He said he would eliminate sales tax from prescriptions and would help welfare recipients pay for medical care.

Later Saturday, Bumpers went to Conway for a rally where he told several hundred persons his campaign is dedicated to "elimination of machine politics, both the old machine and the monied machine."

He criticized the state's prison system saying that the Arkansas has had two professional penologists in the past four years and both were "utter failures." He was apparently referring to Corrections Commissioner Robert Sarver and Thomas Murtin.

Bumpers proposed creating a council to solve the prison's problems. He suggested that former prison inmates could perhaps serve on such a panel.

He refuted statements by Faubus that he supported Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller in the last three elections.

Of Faubus' charges, Bumpers told the crowd, "He knows better than that. When he says a thing like that, he insults the intelligence of the voters of this state."

The Charleston lawyer said that he ran for governor because he felt that "sincere, concerned, dedicated men must become involved" if our system of government is to survive.
